

Matching, recommending
and predicting the best fit.

“ We are entering the era of unparalleled talent scarcity,
which, if left unaddressed, will put a brake on economic growth around the world,
and will fundamentally change the way we approach
the workforce challenges.”

– Jean Charest, Premier of Quebec,
Canada, member of the World
Economic Forum

Company

City

Country

Continent

Talent

Name

JANE SMITH, Ed.D

1234 Main Street • Anywhere, CA 12345
(555) 555-5555 • abc@123.com

Path

Skills

Curriculum Vitae

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Educational Visionary of over 30 years, promoting higher learning for all age groups.

K – 12 Educator | College Professor | Assistant Principal
Consultant & Development Coach

Resourceful Doctor of Education with expertise administering professional development workshops for teachers and administrators that drive success within classrooms and school operations. Mentors educators in the creation and implementation of class instruction, lesson plans, and student assessment in conjunction with state learning regulations. High success rate of teachers and administrators improving school and classroom functions, student/parent relationships, and environments that encourage continuous improvement.

CORE COMPETENCIES

~ Mentoring & Tutoring • Setting School Schedules • Parental & Community Involvement ~
~ Student-Centered Instruction • Curriculum Development and Implementation • Classroom Management ~
~ Instructional Programming • School Technology • Grant Writing • Brainstorming ~

Summary

Timelines

EDUCATION

Doctor of Education in Educational Leadership, 1999
NOVA SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY, Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Master of Science in Home Economics | Consumer Education, 1974
UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND, College Park, Maryland

Bachelor of Science in Home Economics Education, 1969
HAMPTON UNIVERSITY, Virginia

Certification (North Carolina Department of Public Instruction)
Superintendent | Principal (K-12) | Family & Consumer Science Education (9-12)

Education

Context

Links

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT EXPERIENCE

Prince George's County School District, Maryland
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP INSTRUCTOR
2000 – 2005

Andrew Jackson Middle School | Forestville Military Academy

Stimulated faculty, staff, educators, and administrators to resolve a variety of issues hindering growth in classroom settings and school operations by launching new systems and procedures to drive the success of improved grades, behavior, and workflow.

- Consulted with principal to determine needs and structure workshop based on areas in need of improvement.
- Conducted and directed workshops, enabling teachers and administrators to brainstorm areas lacking and provide them with solutions to fill in the gaps.
- Devised plans and proposed new processes according to experience and extensive research from professionals, texts, and various resources.

Selected Accomplishment:

- Achieved up to 95% success rate when teachers and administrators implemented techniques.

Length

Talent ecosystem

